

Logic Model

Components	Description
Goal	To bridge the gap between human and divine justice through morally empowered leadership that promotes equity, transparency, and sustainable peace.
Inputs	Divine justice doctrines; ethical facilitators; training manuals; reflection journals; case studies; workshop venues; faith-based and secular partnerships.
Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Workshops on divine justice and moral authority Ethical dilemma simulations Consultation and ethical risk assessments Servant leadership role-plays Integrity audits Continuous reflection and mentoring
Outputs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Leaders trained across government, corporate, and NGO sectors Ethical frameworks and accountability tools developed Reflection journals produced Organizational justice action plans created
Short-Term Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Increased ethical literacy Strengthened decision integrity Improved awareness of moral accountability
Intermediate Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Integration of divine justice in leadership systems Ethical reforms within institutions Community-level conflict reduction
Long-Term Outcomes / Impact	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Reduction of corruption and exploitation Greater harmony between governance, business, and moral law Establishment of justice-oriented, prosperous societies
Indicators of Success	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Number of trained leaders applying divine justice principles Policies revised to ensure transparency and equity Increased stakeholder trust in institutions Documented cases of conflict resolved through ethical leadership